

CALSSA
November 29, 2016

Meeting called to order by President Gabbert at 12:11 p.m.

Attendees:

Sandra Gabbert-President (ENTO), Velva Groover (HORT), Steve Nagle (CSES), Jon Wooge (CSES), Tabitha Hartman (HORT), Lisa Bishop (DSci), Sophia Leedy (HNFE), Lori Greiner (CALs Admin), Constance Moulder (CALs Admin), Stephanie Slocum (CALs Admin), Shanan Sessor (ENTO), Judy Fielder (PPWS)

Minutes from October 25, 2016 approved – motion by S. Nagle – seconded by S. Slocum – all in favor.

Staff Senate Report:

Leave sharing program discussed – Claudia Cornwell, guest speaker.

Old Business:

Three picnic tables to be placed between breezeway of Sandy and Price Hall. CALS to provide the concrete pads.

Canned fruit drive successful. Velva delivered about a buggy and a half to the Montgomery Christmas Store. However, the store is still in need of canned fruit donations as more families are in need.

VT Police monitoring speeders on Ag Quad Lane.

New Business:

Sophia Leedy (HNFE) is retiring --- best to her in her retirement career!

Staff Senate position is open. Meetings take place the Third Thursday in each month and meeting locations vary on campus. Jon Wooge, Steve Nagle, Velva Groover can provide further information on the duties.

December 1 – scarf sale to benefit the Floyd County Humane Society. Location – outside main office of Hutcheson Hall.

CVC – silent auction to take place December 14 in conjunction with Hutcheson Hall Party. Call for donations are being accepted until December 12. Stephanie located in 104 Hutcheson Hall for delivery of donations. Contact Lori at 1-5863 or Suzie at 1-5299 for further information on the CVC.

March 28, 2017 will be the CALSSA luncheon with Dean Grant and Dept. Heads. Location will be the Alphin Stuart Arena located on Plantation Road. New staff members are encouraged to attend and to find out about CALSSA.

At the next Executive meeting with Dean Grant, Sandra will have a menu from Hethwood Market to select food items for the luncheon on March 28.

President Gabbert had attended a campus wide staff association leadership meeting and found out that other staff associations are involved in various community projects. College of Science distributes goody baskets to senior citizens at retirement facilities.

Next meeting will be January 31, 2017.

Adjournment at 12:52 p.m.