

Women & Gender In International Development
Discussion Series

October 21, 2019
12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Newman Library
Multipurpose
Room 101

DR. ROSE MWONYA

Egerton University, Kenya

Professor and Vice Chancellor. Department of Applied Community
Development Studies and Faculty of Education and Community Science.
Founding Director of the Centre for Women Studies and Gender Analysis

“Lessons from Nakuru and Beyond: A Reflection on Building the Gender, Women and Development Studies
Program at Egerton University.”

Light refreshments will be provided

OUTREACH & INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS
VIRGINIA TECH.

CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH,
EDUCATION, AND DEVELOPMENT

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND LIFE SCIENCES
GLOBAL PROGRAMS
VIRGINIA TECH.

GAP “Global Agricultural Productivity” Report

