3 Month Opportunity in Uruguay in 2020 for U.S. students pursuing Master’s and Ph.D. degrees in viticulture, viniculture, agriculture or a related field

The Fulbright Commission in Uruguay is pleased to announce a three-month fully funded opportunity in 2020 for U.S. students pursuing Master’s and Ph.D. degrees in viticulture, viniculture, agriculture or a related field. This fully-funded program will support two U.S. students for research and internships with National Institute of Agricultural Research (INIA), focused on the wine industry in Uruguay. The application period is now open. Please see https://fulbright.org.uy/becas-para-estadounidenses/study-abroad/ to learn more about qualifications and the application process. This opportunity supports U.S. study abroad to Uruguay and is funded through a Study Abroad Engagement Grant from USA Study Abroad within the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, U.S. Department of State. This internship, though managed by the Fulbright Commission, is not considered a Fulbright Scholarship or other Fulbright Program.

AWARD PROFILE
Master’s and Ph.D. students in the fields of Agriculture and/or Viticulture.

GRANT PERIOD
3 Months between July 2020 to June 2021.

DEPENDENTS
Dependent support is not available.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY
Recommended – Intermediate Spanish.

LOCATIONS
National Institute of Agricultural Research (INIA) – Research may be conducted in one of the five Experimental Stations: INIA Las Brujas (Canelones), INIA La Estanzuela (Colonia), INIA Treinta y Tres, INIA Salto Grande and INIA Tacuarembó.

AFFILIATION
Grantees in the fields of Agriculture and Viticulture will be able to conduct research while doing an internship at one of INIA’s Experimental Stations. INIA is the National Institute for Agricultural Research www.inia.org.uy

DEADLINE
April 30, 2020
To view the NAFA [SCHLRSHP] listserv archives or to unsubscribe from the listserv, click on (or type) http://listserv.uark.edu/archives/schlrshp.html.